

St Giles CYMRU

Troi gorffennol yn ddyfodol
Turning a past into a future

Aberdulais Volunteer Heritage and Wellbeing Hub

A community space for learning, connection and opportunity set within the beautiful historic site of the Aberdulais Tinworks and Waterfall in the heart of the Neath Valley.

Cared for by National Trust Cymru, our new Green Community Training, Heritage and Wellbeing Hub is designed to support people with lived experience.

St Giles
Turning a past into a future

St Giles is a registered charity No 801 355. Head Office, 64-68 Camberwell Church St, London SE5 8JB. www.stgilestrust.org.uk © St Giles 2026

Training for Community Volunteers

Volunteers will join a supportive programme designed to build confidence, skills and future opportunities.

You will receive hands on training that covers:

Heritage skills

- Tour guiding
- Conservation techniques
- Event management

Essential knowledge

- Equality and diversity
- Welsh language awareness
- Safeguarding

What the Hub offers:

- A welcoming, inclusive environment
- Practical skills for heritage and green careers

- Opportunities to connect with nature and community
- Support from experienced staff and mentors

Who is it for?

People with lived experience who want to:

- Learn new skills
- Build confidence
- Explore heritage and wellbeing
- Be part of a meaningful community project

Be part of shaping a new chapter for this historic place - one rooted in community, culture and wellbeing.

Scan QR code to make a referral:

For more information, contact us:

Aberdulaishub@stgilestrust.org.uk

